

I am in full career of God's love

John Houn g

True happiness only comes from the grace of God. In the past decade that I have been at KG, I have experienced true happiness. My journey here at KG can be summed up by the old saying that three true friends are God, spouse and dog. First, God is the true friend. He who belongs to God hears what God says (John 8:47) Once we hear what God says, we can speak from God as we are carried along by the Holy Spirit (2 Peter 1:21) The essential proposition in Christian life which I believe are as follows. The whole of our life is around the God (Matthew 6:33) and then we can contribute toward the real world with enthusiasm. Starting and permitting with God's love (1 Peter 1:7) and then we can keep the peace relationship with a warmly humane understanding, as well as take social service. By the God's axis justice (Hebrews 1:9) rule over all our decision making. Second, the spouse is a true friend. We develop familial relationships with each other. In Matthew chapter 19, verses 4 to 6, Jesus says, "Haven't you read that at the beginning the Creator made them male and female," and said, "For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh"? So they are no longer two, but one. Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate." Lastly, dog gives us unconditional loyalty. It obeys its master. We have the stewardship from God, at whiles in dealing with a goodness of administer, a loyalty come away daily occupations and in acknowledgement to decide the quite right or wrong. God is our master. As long as we live in this world, we need to serve Him and obey Him. Therefore focus on what God has some for you, not what you can do for God or for yourself.
