

Preface

This special edition of the Journal of Policy Studies represents the Proceedings of the Conference on Sustainable Development in Asian Coastal Zones, held at the Rockingham Campus of Murdoch University, Western Australia, 30 November – 02 December, 1998. A related Workshop on Collaborative Research Projects was held on 03 December.

The conference was convened and supported by the School of Policy Studies, Kwansei Gakuin University(KGU), Japan, and the Institute for Science and Technology Policy, Murdoch University, Western Australia, under the terms of an earlier Memorandum of Agreement between the two institutions. On behalf of the School of Policy Studies the conference was convened and organized by Professor Kenneth Ruddle. Co-convenors and co-organizers for the Institute for Science and Technology Policy were Professor Peter Newman and Dr. Laura Stocker. Dr. Kim Chi Tran, Associate Professor in the School of Policy Studies(KGU), assisted the Murdoch staff in planning the conference program.

The conveners wish to express their gratitude to the many persons who contributed to making this conference a success.

All articles in this special edition have been subjected to an external review. The Guest Editor wishes to thank all those anonymous reviewers for their diligence.
