Internationalism and U.S.-Japan Relations : A Historical Perspective

On June 14 and 15 the Southern Methodist University Tower Center Symposium — “U.S.-Japan Relations in a Tumultuous Time: Is the Liberal International Order Decaying?” — was held on the Nishinomiya Uegahara Campus. This event was organized by the Southern Methodist University Tower Center and the KGU School of International Studies. Funding for the event was primarily provided by the Southern Methodist University Tower Center. Kwansai Gakuin University School for International Studies, Japan Airlines and the Japan Foundation co-sponsored the event. The symposium was held with simultaneous interpretation provided by SIMUL International, Inc. Throughout the event, Hiroki Takeuchi 武内宏樹, Director of the Sun & Star Program on Japan and East Asia in the SMU Tower Center, acted as the moderator. The two-day event was well attended by faculties from KGU and other Japanese universities, students, graduate students and members of the community. Reverend Musubi Tabuchi 田淵結, Chancellor of Kwansai Gakuin 関西学院院長, gave a speech during dinner on June 15. The following is the outline of the event.
